DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Applicant is once again reminded that this application appears to claim subject matter disclosed in prior Application No. 2000/198544 Japan, filed 30 June 2000. A reference to the prior application must be inserted as the first sentence of the specification of this application or in an application data sheet (37 CFR 1.76), if applicant intends to rely on the filing date of the prior application under 35 U.S.C. 119(e) or 120. See 37 CFR 1.78(a). For benefit claims under 35 U.S.C. 120, the reference must include the relationship (i.e., continuation, divisional, or continuation-in-part) of all nonprovisional applications. Also, the current status of all nonprovisional parent applications referenced should be included.

If the application is a utility or plant application filed under 35 U.S.C. 111(a) on or after November 29, 2000, the specific reference to the prior application must be submitted during the pendency of the application and within the later of four months from the actual filing date of the application or sixteen months from the filing date of the prior application. If the application is a utility or plant application which entered the national stage from an international application filed on or after November 29, 2000, after compliance with 35 U.S.C. 371, the specific reference must be submitted during the pendency of the application and within the later of four months from the date on which the national stage commenced under 35 U.S.C. 371(b) or (f) or sixteen months from the filing date of the prior application. See 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2)(ii) and (a)(5)(ii). This time period is not extendable and a failure to submit the reference required by 35 U.S.C. 119(e) and/or 120, where applicable, within this time period is considered a waiver of any benefit of such prior application(s) under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121 and 365(c). A priority claim filed after the required time period may be accepted if it is accompanied by a grantable petition to accept an unintentionally delayed claim for priority under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121 and 365(c). The petition must be accompanied by (1) the reference required by 35 U.S.C. 120 or 119(e) and 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) or (a)(5) to the prior application (unless previously submitted), (2) a surcharge under 37 CFR 1.17(t), and (3) a statement that the entire delay between the date the claim was due under 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) or (a)(5) and the date the claim was filed was unintentional. The Director may require additional information where there is a question whether the delay was unintentional. The petition should be addressed to: Mail Stop Petition, Commissioner for Patents, P.O. Box 1450, Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450.

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Specification

It is maintained that the abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it includes idiomatic English, for example "system using auction has" in line 1. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

A substitute specification excluding the claims is required pursuant to 37 CFR 1.125(a) because it is replete with idiomatic English.

A substitute specification must not contain new matter. The substitute specification must be submitted with markings showing all the changes relative to the immediate prior version of the specification of record. The text of any added subject matter must be shown by underlining the added text. The text of any deleted matter must be shown by strike-through except that double brackets placed before and after the deleted characters may be used to show deletion of five or fewer consecutive characters. The text of any deleted subject matter must be shown by being placed within double brackets if strike-through cannot be easily perceived. An accompanying clean version (without markings) and a statement that the substitute specification contains no new matter must also be supplied. Numbering the paragraphs of the specification of record is not considered a change that must be shown.

A substitute specification in proper idiomatic English and in compliance with 37 CFR 1.52(a) and (b) is required. The substitute specification filed must be accompanied by a statement that it contains no new matter.

Examples of idiomatic English include: page 3, lines 2-7 "...an advertisement tenant bidding part for allowing a sponsor to bid for an advertisement tenant contained in the disclosed contents; a sponsor determining part for knocking down the advertisement tenant to the sponsor that has bid a highest price; a contents creating part for correcting the advertisement tenant contained in the contents in accordance with requests from the sponsor...” and page 3, lines 16-17 “...digital contents advertisement display system using auction according to the present invention...” and page 3, lines 28-32 “...the digital contents advertisement display system using auction according to the present invention further includes an advertisement tenant attention degree control part for changing a display of the advertisement tenant so that a degree of attention to the advertisement tenant in the contents is changed in accordance...” and page 6 lines 1-4 “...a character in the present embodiment refers to an idea including general things, and includes an artificial creature and the like that are artificially created, as well as a car, a TV and other things...” and page 7 lines 2-4 “...an advertisement tenant refers to a billboard shown in the outline of contents, articles such as a car and a magazine used in the contents, or a character used in the contents...” are examples, not intended to be a complete listing of all occurrences of the idiomatic English recitations. Applicant repeatedly refers to language not known or used in the art of Advertising.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement as applied in the prior office action. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Specifically, claims 1-15 do not enable one of ordinary skill in the art to use the invention as it is not enabled for an “advertising tenant” while page 6 defines the “tenant” the definition is vague at best. The advertising medium is not enable for “a car” as indicated in the specification on page 6.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Where applicant acts as his or her own lexicographer to specifically define a term of a claim contrary to its ordinary meaning, the written description must clearly redefine the claim term and set forth the uncommon definition so as to put one reasonably skilled in the art on notice that the applicant intended to so redefine that claim term. Process Control Corp. v. HydReclaim Corp., 190 F.3d 1350, 1357, 52 USPQ2d 1029, 1033 (Fed. Cir. 1999). The term “advertisement tenant” in claims 1-15 is used by the claim to mean “a billboard shown in the outline of contents, articles such as a car and a magazine used in the contents, or a character used in the contents.” while the accepted meaning is “Advertisement is defined as a notice to attract public attention or patronage while tenant is defined as an occupant, inhabitant, or dweller in a place.” The term is indefinite because the specification does not clearly redefine the term.

Art Unit: 3624

Claims 1-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention as applied in the prior office action. See prior office action for specific reasoning.

The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors. Further examples include “using auction” this should read --using an auction-- and “a winner sponsor” should read --a winning sponsor--.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

For examination purposes, the art is being as best can be applied in view of the extensive 112 1st and 2nd paragraph rejections as applied above.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yuasa et al. (JP 11(1999)-95694A) as applied in the prior office action, see prior office action for specific citations and reasoning.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 9/28/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

With regards to Applicant's arguments against the 35 USC 112 rejections and the requirement for a new specification, applicant is directed to the above explanation in the instant Office Action.

Examiner acknowledges applicant's response to the 35 USC 105 Request.

In response to applicant's argument against the requirement for a new specification, applicant is referred to the above specific examples within the specification to show cause for a substitute specification. In addition, Examiner is also making a 35 USC 105 request for information (see attached).

With regards to applicant's arguments against the 35 USC 112 second paragraph rejection, it is unclear how applicant differentiates this argument from the 35 USC 101 arguments. Examiner has addressed the 35 USC 112 second paragraph rejection in the above rejections.

With regards to Applicant's arguments against the Yuasa et al. reference, applicant argues Yuasa et al. do not discuss any auctioning process, Yuasa et al. cannot anticipate the claimed present invention. Examiner disagrees. The scope of the Yuasa et al. reference encompasses the limitations of the instant claimed invention.
